

Jupix text messaging solutions

What is it?

Text messages are a quick and efficient way to send applicants, vendors, tenants, landlords or indeed, any type of contact, important information.

How can it benefit your agency?

Not only do text messages through Jupix save your agency time, it's also a great feature for home-movers.

Your applicants can be the first to know about newly instructed properties, as well as reminding your clients about important dates including viewings and inspections: a more direct way of boosting your communication efforts.

As well as providing your agency with a great communication tool, it's also a great way to avoid missed or cancelled appointments, saving your agency time.

Available in many areas of the Jupix system, you'll have the opportunity to enjoy the text messaging feature when you need it most
